Pearls of Skagafjörður

Day 1

Today, we pick you up at the bus station in Sauðárkrókur or welcome you at our farm Helluland around 20oclock. We bring you to our farm and you can otherwise take a little walk or just relax until our tour will start the next day.

Day 2

After we having breakfast together, we go for a beautiful ride in the nature behind our farm you cannot go by car. We have great views over the Skagafjöður and enjoy our horses (ca 2hours). Afterwards we will have a lunchbreak and then drive to the Grettislaug, a natural hot pot next to the ocean. At the farm again we will enjoy dinner together.

Day 3

Today after breackfast we will go for a 2hour beach ride. There we can ride at the black beach from Sauðárkrókur. Afterwards we will have lunchbreak at home and then drive to the torfhouse museum and learn how the icelandic people lived in the old days. Back at Helluland we will have a nice evening while eating dinner together.

Day 4

Today, we start the first ride with handhorses after breakfast. We are riding in the direction of Hofsos and passing for example another great beach where we can ride in the dunes. We will ride for around 18km (2-3hours). After a lunchbreak we are going to the swimmingpool in Hofsos where we can have a great view over the ocean while we are sitting in the hot pot. This is an amazing way to enjoy the afternoon before having dinner together at home.

Day 5

After breakfast we drive to our horses and we will ride the next trip. Today, we are going to the famous area of Kolkúos, the home of the old blood line of Kolkúos which is very well known. The landscape there is really beautiful and we will have great views while riding. From there we will directly go to Holar where we check out the beautiful church, university and also the big stables. If the horse museum is open we will of course have a look in there. At home we relax until we have dinner together.

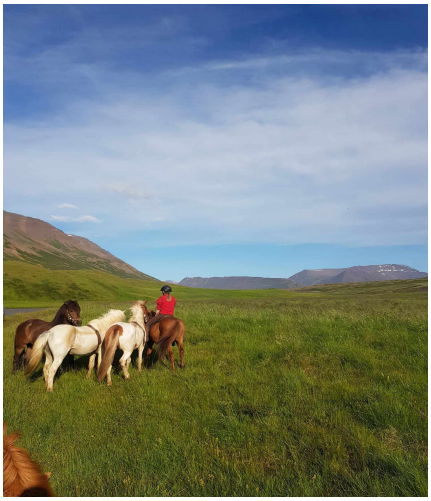

Day 6

We drive back to our horses after we had breakfast together. We will ride through the beautiful Kolbeinsdalur and if we are lucky we can already see a lot of "wild living" horses which are there over the summer. It will be our longest day in the saddle for around good 3 hours. After lunch and a break we can bring everybody who wants to Sauðárkrókur for some free time, look at the supermarket or even to see one of the small museums. In the evening we are enjoying our last dinner together.

Day 7

After breakfast, we drive the last time to our horses and will ride one more time over the black beach back to Helluland with our handhorses. At home we will have lunch together before we bring you back to the bus around 15oclock.
